

LET'S mobilize to abolish the mosquito from Albuquerque.

The Evening Herald

CITY and citizens join in welcoming the Pythian commander.

TRIBUNE-CITIZEN.
Vol. 26, No. 56.

THE EVENING HERALD
Vol. 7, No. 28

NATIONAL GUARD LEAVES HERE FOR THE BORDER AT 5 O'CLOCK TODAY

Everything in Readiness for Departure of Local Companies of State Troops for Rendezvous at Columbus.

ABOUT 75 ALBUQUERQUE MEN TO JOIN REGIMENT

Recruiting Office to Be Maintained Here Until Contingent Is Brought to Full War Strength, Is Announced.

The local companies of the national guard will leave here at 5 o'clock if arrangements are carried through on schedule. It is probable that a large number of people will be at the Santa Fe station to see them off. Railroad officials advise that this afternoon that the first special train that from Santa Fe will reach here about 4 o'clock, this will be the headquarters of the guard and regiment and the two Santa Fe companies, with the regimental band.

The train will be increased here by the addition of several cars for the use of the Albuquerque troops and by a baggage car for stores.

The local Spanish-speaking companies practically completely reorganized since Monday by Major H. Bupper, will have thirty-five men when it leaves, at least. This was assured by envoys up to noon today. The other company, G, had fifty men at the same hour, according to the report of Captain J. H. Toulouse to Major Bupper.

A company this morning encamped in its dog tents on the government plot west of the federal building where its men practiced for a time at setting up tents and going through other maneuvers with which the guards have little to do in their armory, but will have much to do in the field.

A great quantity of equipment for additional recruits was delivered yesterday by express from the depot at Santa Fe. All of this will be taken to the border by Major Bupper. Instituted in the equipment were 21,000 pounds of ammunition. Other equipment and facilities also will be taken to the border, that as much instruction as possible may be given the men while they are encamped.

All supplies were loaded on the cars this morning, so that there is little for the guardsmen to do except to march aboard their cars and depart. The cars are ready for them at the depot, but will not be occupied until after inspection by the quartermaster, Major M. L. Stern, who will arrive with the special late today.

The officers in command of the companies are as follows:

1st company, Captain Farnes, First Lieutenant Ames, Second Lieutenant Ray Serna, Captain Farnes and Lieutenant Ames will join this command at the mobilization point, Lieutenant Serna retaining command until then.

2nd company, Captain J. H. Toulouse, First Lieutenant H. S. Peck, Second Lieutenant J. H. Greifer is to be left here with a detail of privates and non-commissioned officers to recruit men for both the local organizations.

These men will be given such training as is as possible but will not be equipped until they reach the base camp. They will be sent down in batches of ten, under charge of an officer. It is expected that it will be a few days until the companies have been brought to full war strength.

The second battalion of the regiment, formerly commanded by Major E. P. Higgin of Carlisle, and still earlier commanded by Major Bupper, has been placed under Major Bupper's command again and he will assume charge of it as soon as it is assembled.

The local guardsmen have been under arms here for two days during which time G company has been lodged in the armory. A company men have been allowed to go home to sleep. All the men, however, have spent practically all the time since the call came in drilling and studying combat duties. All have been fed at official expense.

The men will leave today in khaki uniforms owing to the warm weather expected to be encountered, but will take olive drab uniforms with them for wear in case they should be given a station where the weather demands something warmer than the light combat uniform.

As they march to the train the guardsmen will carry a pack of approximately forty-five pounds. This includes the Springfield rifle, cartridge belt and cartridge belt suspender, bayonet, bivouac knife, two spoons and salt sack; blanket, poncho, shelter-half; shelter tent poles, entrenching tools, bayonet and personal equipment, such as clean socks, towel, soap, underwear, etc., which are carried in the blanket roll.

CHEERING HUNDREDS BID GUARDSMEN GOOD-BYE

Santa Fe, N. M., May 11.—A cheering crowd of hundreds turned out at 5 o'clock this afternoon and gave an ovation to companies E and F and the regimental officers of the New Mexico national guard assembled at the armory. At 3 o'clock it was announced that the special train which carries the guard to Columbus would not leave until 3:30.

Las Vegas recruited forty-five men who left that point at 2 o'clock to join the Santa Fe contingent at Lamy Junction. The adjutant general this afternoon expressed disappointment at the scarcity of enlistments by available men, saying it would be necessary to merge companies to get the full strength.

BATTERY AND COMPANIES START FOR BORDER

Roswell, N. M., May 11.—Batteries A and B and companies B of Artillery and a special train carrying the three commands left for the state rendezvous at Alamogordo at 11 a. m.

GUARDSMEN EXPECT TO BE ASKED TO VOLUNTEER

Santa Fe, N. M., May 11.—National guardsmen see in the abandonment of Las Cruces as a mobilization point and the concentration of the New Mexico troops at Columbus an indication that they will be asked to volunteer to enter Mexico.

The change in arrangements came yesterday after a lengthy conference between General Funston and Adjutant General Herring over the telephone. At Belen this evening the guardsmen from the northern and central parts of the state will be joined by the Peros Valley contingent and the train south will run in at least two sections. No one knows where the Roswell battery will be assigned to duty but probably it will be near El Paso. Members of the local corps at Roswell, whose services are such, were declined, have enlisted in the battery, or have many cadets in the military institute, also located at Roswell.

Officers to raise anything and everything in the military line poured into headquarters yesterday, last night and today. Among these were professors of a company of sappers and a cavalry regiment.

Offers to recruit companies have come from Spanish-speaking settlements.

Organizations in the Peace valley are scheduled to entrain early today and are now on their way to the rendezvous at Belen. The Santa Fe contingent will contain about 2,000 men from Silver City and Deming, will reach the main mobilization point at Columbus early tomorrow. Equipment needed is ready at each place.

Strenuous efforts are being made at all points to recruit the companies to war strength as fast as possible. The adjutant general stated this morning that everything was moving smoothly and he anticipated no further delays.

Lieut. J. H. McHughes has been detailed to purchase a hundred of horses for the officers.

The following orders were issued by Adjutant General Herring:

Major H. Bupper, transferred to the active list, vice Major E. P. Bupp, placed on the unassigned list.

First Lieut. L. H. Forney of Albuquerque promoted to captain and detailed to Company L.

First Lieut. Guy A. Head of Carlisle, now in charge of the New Mexico building in San Diego, placed on the unassigned list.

The following orders were issued by Adjutant General Herring:

Major H. Bupper, transferred to the active list, vice Major E. P. Bupp, placed on the unassigned list.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

First Lieut. W. R. Ames of Albuquerque, detailed to Company L.

First Lieut. J. W. Crane, placed on the unassigned list.

2d Sergt. A. W. Redell, commissioned as second lieutenant and assigned to the second battalion.

London, May 11, 6:30 p. m.—Fourteen persons have been executed in Ireland. Harold J. Tennant, parliamentary under-secretary for war, told a questioner in the house of commons today: seventeen persons have received sentences of penal servitude and six of imprisonment at hard labor, the under-secretary added.

There are rumors in parliamentary circles that negotiations of some kind are being arranged and that for Edward Carson and John Redmond, the leaders of the two parties are concerned with them.

London, May 11, 6:30 p. m.—Premier Asquith announced this afternoon that he intended to go to Dublin today to be set free from his duty to go to Dublin.

Mr. Asquith said he would leave for Dublin within four hours. His trip, he explained, would not be made with the intention of superseding the executive authority in Ireland, but for the purpose of consulting the civilian military authorities at first hand and arriving at some arrangement for the future which would command its self to Irishmen of all parties and to parliament. He added that the present government of Ireland was in an anomalous and unsatisfactory position which could not be continued indefinitely.

Jack Collins, commissioned first lieutenant and assigned to Company F, was promoted to captain to command Company F.

First Lieut. J. C. Compton and Second Lieut. A. E. Lusk placed on the unassigned list.

Carlisle Gets Life Sentence For U.P. Holdup

Youthful Train Robber to Begin Serving Term in Wyoming Penitentiary Late Today; Calls It Excessive.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 11.—William E. Carlisle was sentenced to life imprisonment in the district court today in conformity with the recommendation of the jury, which late yesterday returned a verdict of guilty on charges of robbing a Union Pacific passenger train near Corlett junction April 4.

Carlisle made a brief statement declaring that the law inflicted excessive punishment. In pronouncing sentence the court severely arraigned the prisoner. Carlisle will be delivered at the penitentiary at Rawlins late today.

As they march to the train the guardsmen will carry a pack of approximately forty-five pounds. This includes the Springfield rifle, cartridge belt and cartridge belt suspender, bayonet, bivouac knife, two spoons and salt sack; blanket, poncho, shelter-half; shelter tent poles, entrenching tools, bayonet and personal equipment, such as clean socks, towel, soap, underwear,

Both Houses of Parliament Are Engaged on the Irish Problem

Situation Occupies More Attention Than at Time of Home Rule Controversy; Executions to Be Discussed.

GOVERNMENT PLACED UNDER SEVERE FIRE

Latest Estimates of Casualties Include About 1,000, of Which 400 Are Killed; 14 Executed in Kingdom.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire

London, May 11, 6:30 p. m.—The house of lords adopted the resolution of Lord Lansbury expressing dissatisfaction of the administration of Irish affairs. There was no division.

London, May 11, 6:30 p. m.—The house of lords occupied today even a more important position in the public mind than they did at the time of the home rule controversy. Both houses of parliament are again engaged with them today. John Dillon's motion for discussion of the executions in Ireland comes up in the house of commons and the house of lords is considering Lord Lansbury's motion expressing dissatisfaction with the Irish administration.

The debate in the house of commons is regarded as the more important, for there the government comes under the cross fire of the whole Irish party and of a large number of Irish members who are determined to bring to an end not only arrests and executions in Ireland, but also martial law.

Unofficial reports said the conference would meet again today at El Paso.

Secretary Baker declared emphatically that he does not expect to order any additional troops to the border soon.

The execution in County Cork of Thomas Kent, although it took place before Premier Asquith gave his assurance that no further death sentences would be carried out until the debate was concluded, has brought further protests from Irish parliamentary circles. The Nationalists also are concerned at the continued arrest and deportation to England for confinement in English jails of rebels from all parts of the country. The number of arrests has not yet been made known, but it must be several thousand.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A number of lists containing ten or more names of persons arrested have been published.

The latest estimates of casualties in Dublin places them at about 1,000, of which 400 were killed. These include soldiers, insurgents and civilians.

The fact is noted in Duluth that since the insurance there has been an increase in the rate of recruiting there.

Even while the controversy over the causes and manner of handling the insurrection is still in progress, efforts are being made to reach a compromise on the rate question. Those who most desire this are arguing that Lord Hardinge, after he has concluded his inquiry into the disturbances, shall be appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland. It is believed that a diplomat would be more likely to bring the two parties together than a politician.

A